LETTERS TO THE BULLETIN

Dear Editor,

The night was warm and balmy with a pleasant smell in the air. Even the flighty creatures of the trees were up late to celebrate the sudden coming of summer, taking full advantage should the next morning prove yesterday only a dream.

As on all other nights, taking leave of the comfort of our child's bed, Tippy patiently waits at the door saying with her big beautiful eyes that it's time for her needs to be met. As usual, within five minutes a short bark will be heard, the door opened once again and a small, black bundle of love would re-enter craving the affection she also freely gave to all she knew within our home.

But, like the day itself, it was to be different from all other days before it. The bark never came...nor did Tippy. A car speeding south thru Roosevelt on Rochdale Avenue near Farm Lane, unseeing...uncaring...unstopping...robbed the life of this affectionate companion in an instant. We take comfort in the fact that it wasn't a child, but nevertheless, a life and love will be missed.

Before a life more dear is taken let's do something to make it more difficult for reckless speeders to go unchecked through our town.

The Coopers,
Bonnie, David, Marc
and Nicole

Mayor's Veto of Zoning Change Stands; Municipal Salary Ordinance Introduced

By Bob Clark

At its May 10 regular meeting the Borough Council did not attempt to override Mayor Leon Barth's veto of an ordinance that would have changed the zoning of an eight-acre strip of land along North Valley Road from residential to agricultural.

Council Member Lou Esakoff commented that he would have moved for an override vote if he thought enough Council members in attendance would vote for the override. Four votes would have been required to override the veto.

An ordinance fixing the salaries of Borough employees passed unanimously on first reading. The proposed ordinance fixes salaries as follows:

Borough Clerk (Elizabeth Johnson) $3000, Borough Treasurer (Howard Prezant) $1200, Tax Collector (Louise Prezant) $3000, Tax Assessor (Michael Ticktin) $1050;

Also, Librarian (Dottie Beinin) $490, Municipal Court Judge (Kenneth R. Smith, Jr.) $525, Municipal Court Clerk (Marie Ugi) $400, Building Inspector (Peter Berlinrut) $450, Zoning Officer (Berlinrut) $150;

Also, Supt. of Public Works (Johnson) $8000, Supt. of Water & Sewer Utilities (Licensed operators are firm of Kowalski & Chmiel) $8000, Water & Sewer Treasurer (H. Prezant) $800 and Water & Sewer Collector (Jacob Blutstein) $945.

The Council will hold a public hearing on the ordinance at its regular meeting on June 14.

In response to a letter from P. T. A. Corresponding Secretary Naomi Brahinsky, the Council voted to increase its contribution to the Fourth of July celebration from $630 to $800. Brahinsky wrote that the P. T. A. might not be able to cover the anticipated $1,400 cost of the annual event without a larger grant from the Council.

No one seconded Council Member Art Shapiro's motion to increase the Council contribution to $1,000. Ted Marton, Esther Pogrebin and Shapiro voted in favor of Marton's motion to provide $800. Lou Esakoff and Arnold Sokolow voted against the increase.

The Council unanimously voted to break a tie bid and to award the contract to grade and gravel a parking lot for the Borough Hall to Hendrickson Excavating at a cost of $1,400.

An ordinance giving the Board of Park Commissioners all of the powers of a Shade Tree Commission and a Board of Recreation Commissioners passed unanimously after a final reading. Park Commissioner Peter Berlinrut explained that the ordinance allows the Board to acquire and maintain parkland, among other powers.

The Council unanimously approved the appointments of John Blair and Joe Maldera to be, respectively, Chief and

School Board Accepts Cox-Shahn Gift

By Elly Shapiro

The Board of Education May 9 heard correspondence from Bernarda Shahn regarding a fund which her late husband established after the death of Dr. Harold Cox, many years ago. Originally, this money funded an annual history prize. But the Board decided not to continue the practice of giving awards to individual pupils, so the fund has been gathering interest since about 1970.

It has now been disbursed, with half going to Hightstown High School and the other half, $567, to Roosevelt School. Mrs. Shahn expressed hope that the money would be used to purchase art and history material for the school library.

The proposed 1978-79 school calendar, which included an early closing in January for Humanitarian Day was amended pending staff approval. This was changed to a full school day, during which national heroes such as Martin Luther King and Franklin Delano Roosevelt could be honored in school programs.

The Board decided to allow people from the Monmouth County Association of Teen Awareness to come into the school and carry out a survey among the students in grades six, seven and eight. By analyzing the data from this anonymous survey, which asks about drugs, free time and general habits, and by observation and interaction with the teen population, the association can assess and recommend ways to deal with the vandalism problem which has been occurring on school grounds.

In other business, the Board heard a report regarding a notice of impasse which has been filed with Public Employees Relations Commission (PERC) by the school staff citing salary disputes.

The Board allocated up to $400 for purchase of fire-proof drapes for the lunch room, the only room presently without window shades. The school lunch equipment and the bright sun make some form of protection necessary.

Use of the school building by the summer program needs to be clarified, however, the Board voted approval for the use of leftover school supplies and materials for this program.

In his report, Principal Lew Gantwerk stated that the sixth, seventh and eighth grade camping trip was a great success. "It was a tough trip in terms of physical demands," he said. Plans will be underway soon for the October 1978 trip.

Kids Commended for CLEAN-UP

By David Herrstrom

Seventy-three beer bottles and cans, then we lost count.

In a single short stretch of Roosevelt road, it hardly seems possible. And this was only one of the six groups of school children, under supervision of teachers and members of the Park Commission, who, together on May 19, picked up enough garbage to start a local recycling plant. Well, perhaps not quite, but Roosevelt is cleaner than it was the day before.

We appreciate the teachers who participated with us, but even more significant are the efforts of the children. They have set an example for us all by their energy and enthusiasm, and we hope their reward was greater than the ice cream they received at the end of their rounds.

Despite skeptical residents and some ad hoc supervisors along the way, the children persisted, to the benefit of us all.

TITLE I APPLICATION REVIEW PLANNED FOR JUNE 27

A special Title I meeting will be held on June 27, 1978 in the Roosevelt School at 7:30 p. m.

Helen Barth is Chairperson of Roosevelt's Title I Council and Dolores Chasan is Title I Coordinator.

PRINCIPAL'S LETTER

Students See Ballet, Visit Museums

Dear Friends,

As the school year draws to an end, we can look back on a number of satisfying and exciting experiences and look forward to a restful summer and another productive school year.

On Tuesday, May 23, we had a demonstration performance by six members of the Garden State Ballet Theater. They explained their training and demonstrated different steps and then performed excerpts from a number of ballets. All the children, K-8, were part of the audience. They all got involved with the performance and had a real close-up look at the ballet.

The third, fourth and fifth graders visited the Museum of Natural History in New York. They were particularly interested in the exhibits on the American Indians and the Eskimos since these were the cultures they had studied. The first and second graders visited Franklin Institute in Philadelphia on Monday, June 5.

Our May 12th "Come With Us" day was quite successful. The performances and classroom activities were well received by the children and the many guests who visited that day. The children here at school learned a great deal through their various projects.

We're involved in the State Educational Assessment Program. The tests were taken in April. The state sets minimal standards in the basic skills area. In reading a child must score 65% or better to be above minimum standards; in math, 75% or better. In our third grade, all of the students were above the minimum standards in reading and all but two children were above in math. In our sixth grade, only two children were below the minimum standard in math and three below in reading. These results are encouraging, and our goal is to have all our students above the minimum standards set by the state.

We expect to receive the results of school-wide achievement tests sometime in June. The data will be analyzed and reported in this paper. Parents will have an opportunity to go over the results of their children's test with school officials.

Our eighth grade students have completed the orientation and freshman course selection process. A hearing date will be set June 12 to decide the future of our sending district relationship with Hightstown High School.

We received the videotape equipment purchased with the $1,000 contribution by the P.T.A. This equipment has been used in the physical education classes, in the primary "project time," for rehearsals of our May 12 presentation and other events. It has been a significant addition to our program.

It has been a productive year at R. P. S. I'd like to take this opportunity to wish you all a restful and healthy summer.

MAYOR'S VETO STANDS; SALARIES INTRODUCED

Assistant Chief of the Fire Company.

Council Member Ted Marton said that the Borough dog service contractor had been inspected by the State on April 27 and received a satisfactory rating. He reported that the borough's "brown bag" ordinance against consumption of alcoholic beverages in public places has been enforced.

In answer to a question from Paul Eichler, Mayor Barth reported that so far as he knew the drop of $200,000 in the Borough's assessed valuations from last year's total was largely due to a new assessment of land near North Valley Road, formerly owned by Xerox Corp. The present owners, Drs. Rebecca and Joseph Notterman, applied for the lower valuation as agents of Xerox prior to their purchase of the property. Xerox had not taken advantage of the State Farmland Assessment Act, which significantly reduces the taxable value of qualified property in order to encourage retention of agricultural land.

in organizing the fireworks display.

This year the Borough Council will pay $800 toward the cost of the annual free beer and hot dog picnic.

An unexpected donation came from George Loyer of Tamara Drive, owner of Princeton Research Press and printer for the Borough Bulletin. Loyer asked the Bulletin staff to donate $300 in newspaper revenue (earmarked for printing expenses) to the community's July Fourth celebration.

The P.T.A. will provide additional financial backing for the free public celebration.

More assistance is needed to complete the picnic and parade. Interested residents should call Ruth Emmans at 448-9580.

MILLSTONE PLANNING BOARD CONSIDERS SUBDIVISIONS AT ELY'S CORNER

The Millstone Township Planning Board granted approval of a five-lot residential subdivision on the D'Amico property at Ely's Corner.

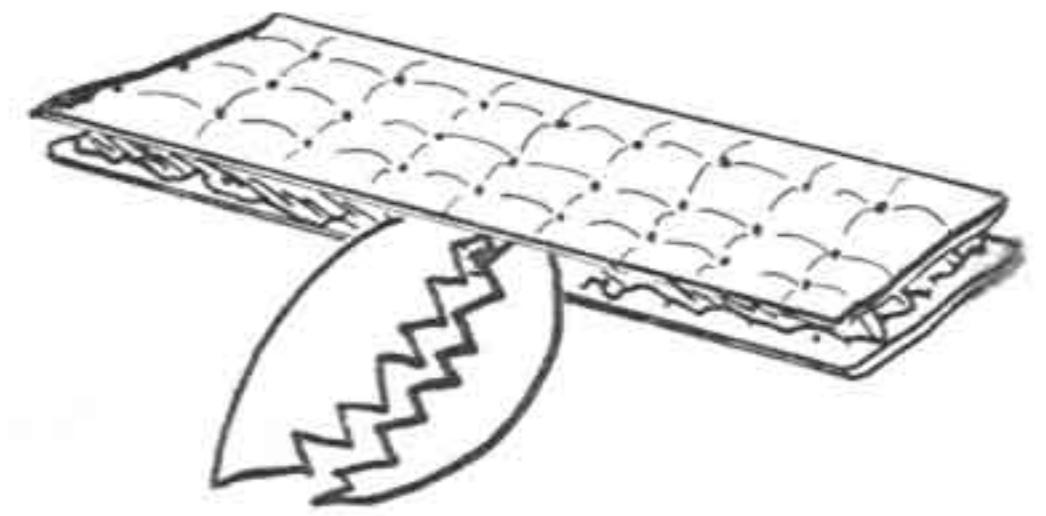

The same planning board is considering a three-lot subdivision of the Philpot property, along Perrineville Road at Ely's Corner.

Frank D'Amico will also need approval from the Monmouth County Planning Board and he will be required to grant a deed that will allow the widening of the Windsor-Perrineville Road.

The township granted D'Amico conditional approval, according to Millstone Mayor Seymour Littman, to subdivide the land adjacent to his pond and fronting on the Windsor-Perrineville Road.

William Philpot's application for subdivision was tabled until the works township engineer can study maps recently submitted by the applicant.

HOT CRACKER SPREAD FEATURES CRABMEAT

By Elly Shapiro

With food prices rising daily, it becomes a dilemma trying to think of something delicious and imaginative to serve to guests. This crabmeat spread recipe is a delight to the taste buds, contains ingredients which are moderately expensive but high in quality and makes a marvelous addition to any informal gathering of friends.

AUDIENCE HEARS CANDIDATES IN SPITE OF DARK, HEAT

The political nature of Roosevelt was attested to on June 1, when Candidate's Night proceeded by candlelight and without air conditioning.

The evening was sponsored by the Senior Citizens to allow members of the public to hear from five candidates running for two seats in the primary elections held earlier this week.

A power failure which affected much of the town eliminated electricity to the Borough Hall meeting room. Nevertheless, a standing-room only crowd of about 80 people remained to hear the candidates make speeches and answer questions for more than an hour and a half.

Lights were restored before the close of the evening.

I wish to thank so very much my friends and neighbors for their help and concern about my welfare during my recovery.

room temperature and softened with 1 tbsp. milk. Add a 6 oz. can of crabmeat from which all the bones have been removed. Blend in 2 tbsp. chopped onion, 1/2 tsp. prepared horseradish and 1/4 tsp. salt. Place mixture in a pie tin and add a small amount of lemon juice if desired. Top with either a layer of slivered almonds or a layer of seasoned bread crumbs. Bake in a 350 degree oven for 20 minutes, and serve hot with crackers.

Enjoy this rich, filling, tasty treat the next time you have friends over for an evening. Be prepared for compliments galore! Many thanks to Maureen Keller for preparing this dish for me.

COMING NEXT MONTH: MEATLESS RECIPES

Since even ground meat is supposed to reach $2.00 per pound in the not too distant future, I'd appreciate any of your favorite meatless recipes. Perhaps by printing some, we can fight increasing food costs.

Marilyn Vigiano and Leslie Weiner won the Democratic nod of approval for two Borough Council positions in the Primary Election on Tuesday, June 6, and write-in candidate Bill Counterman accepted the GOP nomination.

Democrats cast 146 votes Tuesday for Vigiano, 113 for Weiner, 62 for David Jones and 39 for Gary Maltby. Counterman got 90 Democratic write-in votes.

Both Counterman and Jones got write-in votes on the Republican side, enabling them to run in the fall on the GOP ticket.

Jones said he is undecided about any November candidacy. He has until Tuesday to file his acceptance with Monmouth County election officials.

Counterman has already filed his acceptance with the county. He got eight write-in votes in the Republican column on Tuesday.

Shirley Eichler was voted in as a member of the Republican Executive Committee of Monmouth County. Dave Dulkan received the Democratic Executive Committeeman nomination. Esther Pogrebin and Freda Hepner each received three votes for Democratic Executive Committeewoman.

In a state race for the United States Senate, incumbent Clifford Case received 15 Roosevelt votes, while Jeff Bell received none. This was not representative of the whole state where Bell was GOP winner and Bill Bradley won the Democratic nomination.
